

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

planning authority this Council, having considered your* [outline] application to carry out the following development:-

Demolition - erection of 6 flats in 3 storey block at site of 208 Church Road, Thundersley

in accordance with the plan(s) accompanying the said application, do hereby give notice of their decision to GRANT PERMISSION for † [the said development]

subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1. The development hereby permitted may only be carried out in accordance with details of the siting, design and external appearance of the buildings and the means of access thereto (hereinafter called "the reserved matters"), the approval of which shall be obtained from the planning authority before the development is begun.
2. Application for approval of the reserved matters shall be made to the C.P. District planning authority within two years beginning with the date of this permission.
3. The development hereby permitted shall be begun not later than whichever is the later of the following dates - (a) the expiration of three years from the date of this permission; or (b) the expiration of one year from the final approval of the reserved matters or, in the case of approval on different dates, the final approval of the last such matter to be approved.

The reasons for the foregoing conditions are as follows:-

1,2,& 3.

The particulars submitted are insufficient for consideration of the details mentioned and also pursuant to Section 42 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.

IMPORTANT - ATTENTION IS DRAWN TO THE NOTES OVERLEAF

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Schedule attached to Decision Notice
Application No. CPT/806/74

Conditions (contd..)

4. The reserved matters referred to in Condition 1 above shall contain full details of all materials to be used on the external elevations of the proposed development.
5. The reserved matters referred to in Condition 1 above shall contain details of all landscaping, planting and tree planting to be carried out on the site, together with details of all trees and other natural vegetation on the site to be retained.
6. The reserved matters referred to in Condition 1 above shall contain details of all hedges, fences, walls and amenity screening to be erected, planted or constructed to serve the development hereby approved.
7. That the building be designed with a mansard roof in sympathy with the adjoining properties.
8. No vehicular access to be gained from Hazelmere Road.

Reasons (contd..)

- 4, 5 & 6. In order that full consideration can be given to these matters prior to commencement of the development hereby approved.
7. In the interests of the visual amenities of the area.
8. To safeguard the residential amenities of the properties in Hazelmere Road.

The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Conditions

1. The development hereby permitted shall be begun on or before the expiration of three years beginning with the date of this permission.
2. A scheme of landscaping including details of all hedges, planting and tree planting to be carried out, together with details of all trees and other natural vegetation to be retained on site shall be submitted to and approved by the Castle Point District Council in writing, prior to commencement of the development hereby approved; such landscaping scheme to be implemented prior to completion and occupation of the said development.

Any tree contained within such scheme dying or being removed within 5 years of the date of this permission shall be replaced by a tree of similar size and species by the applicant or the applicants successor in title.

3. No development of the type specified in Section 1 of Class I of Schedule I of the Town and Country Planning General Development Order 1973 shall be carried out without the permission of the Castle Point District Council.
4. That the buildings be brought forward to a distance of not more than 3.3 metres from the front boundary.

Reasons

1. This condition is imposed pursuant to Section 41 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.
2. To ensure a satisfactory development incorporating a degree of natural relief in the interests of the amenities of this site.
3. The site of the development hereby approved is restricted in size, and additional development could result in an unacceptable diminution in privacy or private open space standards.
4. So as to provide a more satisfactory rear garden amenity space.
