NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Conditions

1. The development hereby permitted shall be begun on or before the expiration of three years beginning with the date of this permission.
2. There shall be no obstruction to visibility above a height of 1m. (3'3") within the area of the sight splay hatched blue on the plan returned herewith, save as provided for in any other condition of this permission.
3. A 1.8m. (6'0") close boarded screen fence shall be erected and maintained in the positions indicated green on the plan returned herewith, prior to completion and occupation of the development hereby approved.
4. The garage for the occupier of the flat over the shop be constructed and available for use before the shop building is occupied.
5. Spaces for the parking of ^{VISITORS} ~~these~~ cars shall be provided within the site and outside the areas defined for vision splay, suitably surfaced and laid out to the satisfaction of the District Council before the shop premises are occupied.
6. This permission relates only to the erection of a shop and flat above, and does not grant or imply the future grant ^{of} permission for the future development of shops shown on the submitted plan.

Reasons

1. This condition is imposed pursuant to Section 41 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.
2. To obtain maximum visibility in the interests of highway safety.
3. To safeguard the privacy and amenities of both this and adjoining properties.
4. & To comply with the planning authorities car parking
5. and service areas for shop developments standards.
6. To define the permission hereby granted.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Town and Country Planning General Development Orders.

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CASTLE POINT

To K.P. Freshwater Ltd.,*256 Benfleet Road, Benfleet.

This Council do hereby give notice of their decision to REFUSE permission for the following development :-

Amended plan to provide flat roof to proposed block of 4 flats with amended fenestration at 4 Kennington Avenue, Benfleet.

for the following reasons:-

The proposal is lacking in architectural merit and would create an obtrusive feature in the street scene.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Conditions:

1. The development hereby permitted may only be carried out in accordance with details of the siting, design and external appearance of the buildings and the means of access thereto (hereinafter called "the reserved matters"), the approval of which shall be obtained from the district planning authority before the development is begun.
2. Application for approval of the reserved matters shall be made to the district planning authority within two years beginning with the date of this permission.
3. The development hereby permitted shall be begun not later than whichever is the later of the following dates:-
 - (a) The expiration of three years from the date of this permission; or
 - (b) the expiration of one year from the final approval of the reserved matters or, in the case of approval on different dates, the final approval of the last such matter to be approved.
4. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain full details of all materials to be used on the external elevations of the proposed development.
5. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain details of all landscaping, planting and tree planting to be carried out on the site, together with details of all trees and other natural vegetation on the site to be retained.
6. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain details of all hedges, fences, walls and amenity screening to be erected, planted or constructed to serve the development hereby approved.
7. This permission does not approve details shown on the plan accompanying the application.

Reasons:

- 1,2& 3. The particulars submitted are insufficient for consideration of the details mentioned and also pursuant to Section 42 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.
- 4,5& 6. In order that full consideration can be given to these matters prior to commencement of the development hereby approved.
7. The application was stated to be in outline only, and the Local Planning Authority does not wish to be committed to accepting the details shown.
