NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to approve the reserved matters and details of the proposed development, subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London S.W.1.P 3EB in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971. The Secretary of State, is not, however, required to entertain such an appeal if it appears to him that such approval could not have been given by the local planning authority otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the provisions of Sections 29 and 30 of the Act and of the Development Orders and to any directions given under the Orders.

(2) The decision overleaf is for planning approval only. It is necessary for your plans to be passed by the Borough or District Council under their BUILDING REGULATIONS (unless this has already been done or they are exempted therefrom).

in accordance with the plan(s) accompanying the said application, do hereby give notice of their decision to GRANT PERMISSION for † [the said development]

subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1. The development hereby permitted may only be carried out in accordance with details of the siting, design and external appearance of the buildings and the means of access thereto (hereinafter called "the reserved matters"), the approval of which shall be obtained from the planning authority before the development is begun.
2. Application for approval of the reserved matters shall be made to the planning authority within two years beginning with the date of this permission.
3. The development hereby permitted shall be begun not later than whichever is the later of the following dates - (a) the expiration of three years from the date of this permission; or (b) the expiration of one year from the final approval of the reserved matters or, in the case of approval on different dates, the final approval of the last such matter to be approved.

The reasons for the foregoing conditions are as follows:-

1,2,& 3.

The particulars submitted are insufficient for consideration of the details mentioned and also pursuant to Section 42 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.

The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

In pursuance of the powers exercised by them ~~on behalf of the County Council of Essex~~ planning authority this Council do hereby give notice of their decision to REFUSE permission for the following development:-

Construction of garage with playroom and bathroom over at 45 Kings Park, Thundersley.

for the following reasons:-

The proposal would create an obtrusive and discordant feature in the street scene to the detriment of the visual amenities of the surrounding area.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966):

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

In pursuance of the powers exercised by them ~~on behalf of the Council of Essex~~ as the local planning authority this Council do hereby give notice of their decision to REFUSE permission for the following development:-

Two Storey extension at side (garage and additional bedroom accommodation), at 236, Church Road, Thundersley.

for the following reasons:-

1. This proposed two storey extension abutting the flank boundary would result in a cramped appearance of the dwelling on its site and contribute to a retrograde diminution of space standards in the street.
2. The proposal would result in architectural imbalance of the pair of semi detached houses to the detriment of their appearance.

The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.
