

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to approve the reserved matters and details of the proposed development, subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London S.W.1.P 3EB in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971. The Secretary of State, is not, however, required to entertain such an appeal if it appears to him that such approval could not have been given by the local planning authority otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the provisions of Sections 29 and 30 of the Act and of the Development Orders and to any directions given under the Orders.

(2) The decision overleaf is for planning approval only. It is necessary for your plans to be passed by the Borough or District Council under their BUILDING REGULATIONS (unless this has already been done or they are exempted therefrom).

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Conditions (continued)

4. The permission hereby granted shall not extend to the layout of the house and garage shown on the submitted plan, which details shall form part of the matters reserved for subsequent approval in accordance with Condition 1 above.
5. A minimum private rear garden area of 1000 sq. ft. shall be provided.
6. The boundaries of the site shall be screened in positions and in a manner to be agreed by the District Planning Authority before the dwelling hereby permitted is first occupied.

Reasons (continued)

4. & 5. To ensure a satisfactory layout and that adequate private rear garden space is provided in accordance with the District Planning Authorities Standards.
6. To ensure an adequate standard of privacy is maintained for the occupants of the proposed dwelling.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CASTLE POINT

To Mr. J.E. Jarman,
592, Daws Heath Road,
Hadleigh, Essex.

This Council, having considered your* (~~outline~~) application to carry out the following development :-

Temporary use of caravan for 1 year (whilst house is being built) at 592 Daws Heath Road, Hadleigh.

in accordance with the plan(s) accompanying the said application, do hereby give notice of their decision to GRANT PERMISSION for † [the said development] subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1. That the use of this site for the parking of the caravan shall cease one year from the date of this approval, unless an extension of time is agreed in writing with the Castle Point District Council
2. That this permission shall enure solely for the owners of this plot and shall not be implemented for the benefit of other parties.
3. That the existing workshops on the site be demolished prior to the habitation of the caravan.

The reasons for the foregoing conditions are as follows:-

1. In order to ensure the minimal utilization of this sub-standard form of accommodation.
2. In the interests of maintaining control over this form of development.
3. In order to safeguard the appearance of the area.
