TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Town and Country Planning General Development Orders.

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CASTLE POINT

To G. H. Ellis & Son
c/o R. V. Hudson, 303 London Road, Hadleigh.

This Council, having considered your* (outline) application to carry out the following development :-

demolition - erection of 3 2-bed. bungalows at 24 Rainbow Road, Canvey Island.

in accordance with the plan(s) accompanying the said application, do hereby give notice of their decision to GRANT PERMISSION for † [the said development] subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1. The development hereby permitted may only be carried out in accordance with details of the siting, design and external appearance of the buildings and the means of access thereto (hereinafter called "the reserved matters"), the approval of which shall be obtained from the planning authority before the development is begun.
2. Application for approval of the reserved matters shall be made to the planning authority within two years beginning with the date of this permission.
3. The development hereby permitted shall be begun not later than whichever is the later of the following dates - (a) the expiration of three years from the date of this permission; or (b) the expiration of one year from the final approval of the reserved matters or, in the case of approval on different dates, the final approval of the last such matter to be approved.

The reasons for the foregoing conditions are as follows:-

1, 2 & 3.

The particulars submitted are insufficient for consideration of the details mentioned and also pursuant to Section 42 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.

Note! This permission does not incorporate Listed Building Consent unless specifically stated.

* This will be deleted if necessary

† Details of the development now permitted will be inserted here, where this is not precisely the same as that described in the application.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

8 DEC 1975

Conditions

4. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain full details of all materials to be used on the external elevations of the proposed development.
5. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain details of all landscaping, planting and tree planting to be carried out on the site, together with details of all trees and other natural vegetation on the site to be retained.
6. The reserved matters referred to in condition 1 above shall contain details of all hedges, fences, walls and amenity screening to be erected, planted or constructed to serve the development hereby approved.
7. Details or samples of all materials to be used on the external elevations of the development proposed shall be submitted to and approved by the Castle Point District Council in writing, prior to commencement of the development hereby approved.
8. The layout of the development as shown shall be specifically excluded from the application hereby approved.

Reasons.

- 4, 5, & 6. In order that full consideration can be given to these matters prior to commencement of development hereby approved.
7. In order to ensure a satisfactory development in sympathy with and harmonious to existing development in this area.
8. In order to ensure a satisfactory development.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 375 Kensington High Street, W14 8QB)

The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

† Details of the development now permitted will be inserted here, where this is not precisely the same as that described in the application.

NOTES

(1) If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment, in accordance with Section 36 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Secretary of State for the Environment, 2 Marsham Street, London, S.W.1.). The Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Conditions:

1. The development hereby permitted shall be begun on or before the expiration of three years beginning with the date of this permission.
2. A 1.8m. (6'0") brick wall/close boarded screen fence shall be erected and maintained in the positions indicated green on the plan returned herewith, prior to completion and occupation of the development hereby approved.
3. A scheme of landscaping including details of all hedges, planting and tree planting to be carried out, together with details of all trees and other natural vegetation to be retained on site shall be submitted to and approved by the Castle Point District Council in writing, prior to commencement of the development hereby approved; such landscaping scheme to be implemented prior to completion and occupation of the said development.

Any tree contained within such scheme dying or being removed within 5 years of the date of this permission shall be replaced by a tree of similar size and species by the applicant or the applicants successor in title.
4. Details or samples of all materials to be used on the external elevations of the development proposed shall be submitted to and approved by the Castle Point District Council in writing, prior to commencement of the development hereby approved.

Reasons:

1. This condition is imposed pursuant to Section 41 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1974 and in order to encourage an early start to the development having regard to the considerable demand for additional housing accommodation over the country as a whole.
2. To safeguard the privacy and amenities of both this and adjoining properties.
3. To ensure a satisfactory development incorporating a degree of natural relief in the interests of the amenities of this site.
4. In order to ensure a satisfactory development in sympathy with and harmonious to existing development in this area.

The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include Section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act, 1965 and Section 23 of the Industrial Development Act 1966).

(2) If permission to develop land is refused, or granted subject to conditions, whether by the local planning authority or by the Secretary of State for the Environment and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, he may serve on the Council of the County District in which the land is situated a purchase notice requiring that Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part IX of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971

(3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of an application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 169 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.
