1. The Tree Preservation Appeals Panel considered the written and oral evidence presented by the objectors of the Tree Preservation Order. The Local Authority presented evidence as to why it considered that the Tree Preservation Order should be confirmed.

NOTE: Any person contravening the provisions of this Order by cutting down, uprooting or wilfully destroying a tree, or by wilfully damaging, topping or lopping a tree in such a manner as to be likely to destroy it is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the prescribed sum— or twice the sum which appears to the court to be the value of the tree, whichever is the greater, or on indictment to fine. The penalty for any other contravention of this Order is a fine not exceeding Level 4 on the standard scale# on summary conviction and, in the case of a continuing offence when the contravention is continued after conviction, a person is liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding £5 for every day on which the contravention is so continued.

If a tree is removed, uprooted or destroyed in contravention of an order or, except in the case of a tree to which the order applies as part of a woodland, is removed, uprooted or destroyed or dies at a time when its cutting down or uprooting is authorised only by section 198(6)(a) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 relating to trees which are dying or dead or have become dangerous, it is the duty of the owner of the land, unless on his application the local planning authority dispense with the requirement, to plant another tree of appropriate size and species at the same place as soon as he reasonably can.
Except in emergency, not less than 5 days previous notice of the removal, etc. should be given to the authority to enable the latter to decide whether or not to dispense with the requirement. In respect of trees in a woodland it is sufficient to replace the trees removed, uprooted or destroyed by planting the same number of trees either on or near the land on which the trees removed, uprooted or and (in either case) in such places as may be designated by the authority.

* - This provision is not to be included unless it appears to the authority that the Order should take effect immediately.

+ - This provision may be included in relation to trees to be planted pursuant to a condition imposed under section 197 of the Act.

-£1000 but subject to alteration by Order.
